4. 37 CFR 1.78(b) provides that when two or more applications filed by the same applicant contain conflicting claims, elimination of such claims from all but one application may be required in the absence of good and sufficient reason for their retention during pendency in more than one application. The attached Appendix provides clear evidence that such conflicting claims exist between the 329 related co-pending applications identified above. However, an analysis of all claims in the 329 related co-pending applications would be an extreme burden on the Office requiring millions of claim comparisons.

In order to resolve the conflict between applications, applicant is required to either:

- (1) file terminal disclaimers in each of the related 329 applications terminally disclaiming each of the other 329 applications, or;
- (2) provide an affidavit attesting to the fact that all claims in the 329 applications have been reviewed by applicant and that no conflicting claims exists between the applications. Applicant should provide all relevant factual information including the specific steps taken to insure that no conflicting claims exist between the applications, or;
- (3) resolve all conflicts between claims in the above identified 329 applications by identifying how all the claims in the instant application are distinct and separate inventions from all the claims in the above identified 329 applications (note: the five examples in the attached Appendix are merely illustrative of the overall problem. Only correcting the five identified conflicts would not satisfy the requirement).

Failure to comply with the above requirement will result in abandonment of the application.

Art Unit: 2742

INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

5. Receipt is acknowledged of applicants' Information Disclosure Statements filed on 12-6-95, 12-11-95, 12-22-95, 2-6-96, 4-17-96, and 4-7-97. In view of the unusually large number of references cited in the instant application (approximately 2,200 originally and 645 in the subsequent IDS) and the failure of applicant to point out why such a large number of references is warranted, these references have been considered in accordance with 37 C.F.R. 1.97 and 1.98 to the best ability by the examiner with the time and resources available.

The foreign language references cited therein where there is no statement of relevance or no translation are not in compliance with 37 C.F.R. 1.98 and have not been considered. Numerous references listed in the IDS are subsequent to applicant's latest effective filing date of 9/11/87, therefore, the relevancy of these references is unclear. Also cited are numerous references that are apparently unrelated to the subject matter of the instant invention such as: US Patent # 33,189 directed toward a beehive, GB 1565319 directed toward a chemical compound, a cover sheet with only the word "ZING", a computer printout from a library search with the words "LST" on it and a page of business cards including that of co-inventor James Cuddihy, among others. The relevancy of these references cannot be ascertained. Furthermore, there are several database search results listed in foreign languages (such as German) which list only the title and document information; no copy has been provided, therefore, these references have not been considered.

Art Unit: 2742

CLAIM REJECTIONS - 35 USC § 112

6. Claims 3-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

37 C.F.R. 1.75(d)(1) requires that:

“the terms and the phrases used in the claims must find clear support or antecedent basis in the description so that the meaning of the terms in the claims may be ascertainable by reference to the description”.

The following limitations were not supported by the specification as originally filed:

With respect to claims 3 and 8, support for the method steps of using a “programming requirement signal” as a basis for locating an available programming space could not be found in the disclosure. The Examiner did a word search of U.S. Patent Number 4,965,825 and the phrase “requirement signal” does not appear anywhere in the specification. What terminology in the specification reads on the phrase “programming requirement signal” recited in the claims? Further, the Examiner respectfully requests applicants to specifically point out where the method step of locating an available programming storage space based on a step of storing a programming requirement signal as recited in claim 3 is disclosed and where a programming requirement signal effective to enable a transmitter station to locate an available programming space in which to store first programming as recited in claim 8 is disclosed.

Claims 4-7, 20-36 and 9-19 are rejected for being dependent upon rejected claims 3 and 8, respectively.

Art Unit: 2742

7. Claims 8-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claim 8, the amended phrase "said first programming" on line 6 lacks antecedent basis.

With respect to claims 9-19, the claims are rejected for being dependent upon rejected claim 8.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 3-36 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

ALLOWABLE SUBJECT MATTER

9. Claims 3-36 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112 set forth in this Office action.

10. As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's response must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).

Art Unit: 2742

11. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

With respect to claims 3-7 and 20-36, the prior art of record fails to disclose locating an available programming storage space based on a method step of storing a programming requirement signal and storing first programming based said step of locating an available programmed storage space. The phrase "based on said step" clearly indicates that it is the step (process) of storing, not the signal itself, upon which the locating and storing first programming steps are based on. Cox et al. (U.S. Patent Number 4,388,645) fails to disclose locating (via a search) an available programming storage space. It is understood that when locating an available space, applicants' invention locates an available programming storage space of sufficient capacity to store the first programming.

With respect to claims 8-19, the prior art of record fails to disclose storing a transmitter control signal and storing an instruct signal which effects one of a transmitter station or receiver station to generate a programming requirement signal which is effective to locate an available programmable storage space in which to store first programming. Cox et al. (U.S. Patent Number 4,388,645) fails to disclose locating (via a search) an available programming storage space. It is understood that when locating an available space, applicants' invention locates an available programming storage space of sufficient capacity to store the first programming.
